

Underground Natural Gas Storage

Zach Barrett

Director, State Programs Division

USDOT PHMSA Office of Pipeline Safety

State Certification

- 60105 Certification

- Intrastate Facilities

- Minimum Federal Regulations Adopted by State
 - State Regulations which are More Stringent than Federal Regulations may be in place or developed
 - State can inspect and enforce minimum federal regulations and more stringent State Regulations
 - If a State does not Certify with PHMSA – PHMSA must inspect and enforce to the minimum federal regulations

State Certification

- 60106 Agreement

- Intrastate Facilities

- Minimum Federal Regulations In Process of State Adoption
- State Can Inspect to Federal Regulations, but must forward identified violations to PHMSA for enforcement
- State Can Inspect and Enforce More Stringent State Regulations

State Certification

- Interstate Facilities

- Interstate Agent Agreements

- State Can Inspect to Federal Regulations, but must forward identified violations to PHMSA for enforcement
 - State Can Not Inspect and Enforce More Stringent State Regulations

- Participating with PHMSA for Interstate Inspections

- State Can Participate with PHMSA inspecting interstate facilities
 - PHMSA inspects and conducts enforcement to Federal Regulations

Thank You

